Dear Dan,

Our client is grateful that you have sought his comment in advance of publishing further allegations about his tax affairs and asks that you continue to do so if that is your intention. As we have said previously, our client recognises that he is subject to public scrutiny, including in relation to his tax affairs. In that respect, our client's taxes are fully declared and paid in the UK. He therefore does not intend to engage further on these issues via your blog and Twitter feed. Any suggestion that our client has used offshore tax structures in order to obtain a tax advantage would continue to be false.

Yours sincerely

Osborne Clarke LLP
